Re: Dorothy Haupt, No. 7:07-cr-00279 (SCR)

Dear Judge Robinson:

I write to seek a modification of the bail conditions for Dorothy Haupt in the above-referenced case. Ms. Haupt seeks permission to travel from her home in Warwick, New York, to Bucks County, Pennsylvania, for a one day trip between the dates of Monday July 23, 2007, and Friday July 27, 2007. This trip is at the request of her employer. In May, the Court granted Ms. Haupt permission to make a one-day, work-related trip to Pennsylvania. Ms. Haupt's employer changed her mind and that trip was not necessary.

I have spoken with Ms. Nola Heller, the Assistant United States Attorney on this matter, and she has consented to the proposed modification to Ms. Haupt's bail conditions. In connection with a prior attempt to seek modification of Ms. Haupt's bail conditions in January of this year, Pre-Trial Services informed Ms. Haupt's lead attorney, Carolyn Barth Renzin, that they are not supervising Ms. Haupt due to her low risk status. As a result, I did not contact them directly in connection with this request.
